Beneficiary Designation Instructions

This form is used to designate beneficiaries to receive any lump-sum death benefits payable from the Judges' Retirement System (JRS) in the event of your death. If you do not designate beneficiaries, death benefits will be paid to your estate. The Death Benefit Beneficiary Designation form does not pertain to survivor benefits or life insurance proceeds.

This form should be typed or printed clearly in ink. Cross through and initial any corrections or changes. Do not use correction fluid. If you need additional space for primary or secondary beneficiaries, attach a signed and dated sheet listing additional beneficiaries, including all details, as indicated in Beneficiary Designation section.

Payment progression: Your death benefits will be paid first to your primary beneficiaries. If some of your primary beneficiaries die before you, your death benefit will be divided among those primary beneficiaries who are still living. Secondary beneficiaries will receive benefits only if no primary beneficiary survives you.

If you specify percentages to be paid to beneficiaries in either the primary or secondary designation areas, the percentages in each category must total 100%. If you choose to designate specific percentages, please write the percentage next to each name.

Please provide all of the requested information for each designated beneficiary, including the date of birth and last four digits of the Social Security number as this information will help JRS locate your beneficiaries. If you want to name your estate as beneficiary, write the word "Estate" on the Death Benefit Beneficiary Designation form. It will be the responsibility of your executor to distribute the proceeds as outlined in your will.

JRS cannot accept a per stirpes beneficiary designation. If a beneficiary predeceases you, you will need to update your Death Benefit Beneficiary Designation form or the benefit will be divided among those beneficiaries who are still living.

The beneficiary designation must be returned to JRS and becomes effective when received and deemed valid by JRS. Invalid forms will be returned with further instructions. Any form received by JRS after the member's date of death will be invalid.

You may change beneficiaries at any time by completing a new Death Benefit Beneficiary Designation form. The form on file at JRS that has the most recent date located next to the member's signature will take precedence.

Once you have completed your designation and signed and dated the form, it must be mailed or sent by facsimile to JRS. DO NOT email this form to JRS. Email is not secure and puts your personal information at risk.

A person with Power of Attorney may sign a Death Benefit Beneficiary Designation form on behalf of a member. They must also submit a copy of the Power of Attorney papers and the papers must specifically state that the person with Power of Attorney has the right to name and/or change the beneficiaries for the member.

An acknowledgement will be sent to active and inactive employees upon receipt of a valid designation. Retirees will be notified of a valid designation on their annual benefit statement.
